3. That the Class A shares and Class B shares shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) the holders of the Class A shares shall be entitled to receive and the company shall pay thereon as, and when declared by the board of directors, out of the moneys of the company properly applicable to the payment of dividends, a fixed, cumulative, preferential cash dividend, hereinafter called the "preferred dividend", at the rate of 50 cents per share per annum, payable quarterly on the 15th of March, June, September and December in each year;
- (b) preferred dividends shall accrue from such date or dates as may be determined by the board of directors by a by-law approved by the Provincial Secretary;
- (c) each quarterly preferred dividend shall be deemed to be a dividend for the quarterly period ending on the dividend payment date, and if not so declared and paid in and for any quarterly period, may subsequently be declared and paid;
- (d) no dividend shall, at any time, be declared or paid upon or set apart for payment on the Class B shares until the preferred dividend for the then current quarterly period has been declared and until all preferred dividends for all previous quarterly periods from the date fixed

- (i) thereafter, so long as any dividends on the Class A shares remain in arrears, the holders of the Class A shares shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of shareholders, and to attend all such meetings, and to one vote in respect of each Class A share held and as a class, to elect the majority of the board of directors and the holders of the Class B shares, as a class, shall have the right to elect the other directors;
- (j) after payment of the arrears of dividends as aforesaid, the holders of the Class A shares shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders unless an aggregate of 8 consecutive quarterly preferred dividends are again in arrears and are payable according to the terms hereof;

- (k) in the event of the dissolution or winding up of the company or other distribution of the assets of the company among shareholders, other than by way of dividend out of moneys of the company properly applicable to the payment of dividends, the holders of the Class A shares shall first be entitled to receive an amount equivalent to the unpaid preferred dividends thereon, which for those purposes shall be calculated as if the dividends were accruing from day to day from the last dividend payment date to which such dividends have been paid in full, up to the date of such distribution, whether declared or not; and thereafter the holders of the Class A shares and the holders of the Class B shares shall be entitled to share equally, share for share, in the distribution of the assets of the company;
